Amanda began her career at Liberty National Bank in 2002, then Bank of Elgin, as a teller while continuing her education. Because of her excellent abilities, she was quickly promoted to a Customer Service Representative and then to a Loan Administrative Assistant in 2004. The loan process quickly became her passion as she saw the opportunity to help people realize their dream. She currently serves as Vice President/Loan Officer with the majority of her portfolio in commercial lending.

Amanda states that she very much enjoys commercial real estate and home construction, both SPEC and Custom. Whether it is the launch of a project or the completion, she revels in all aspects to help alleviate the stress that comes with making a vision, reality.

Amanda grew up in Comanche County and graduated from the Business Computer Technology program at Great Plains Technology Center. She later graduated from the University of Phoenix with a Bachelor of Science in Business with a concentration in Finance. She also serves on the Women in Banking committee for the Oklahoma Bankers Association.
