Courtney began her banking career in 2003, having started as a part time teller while attending college. Upon completing her education, she found that she loved the banking industry and decided to make it her lifetime career. Over the years, she has had the opportunity to serve as a Teller Supervisor, New Accounts Specialist and Branch Manager.

Courtney joined the Liberty National Bank team in 2019 as the Retail Operations Coordinator to help oversee the daily functions of the Teller and New Account departments. In 2021, she transitioned into the Human Resources department serving as the HR Manager. Upon her success in this role, she was promoted to Human Resources Director where she is currently serving today.

Courtney holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Cameron University with a minor in Business Management. She has also attended the GSB Human Resource Management School at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Courtney is a proud member of Leadership Lawton Class of XXXI.

When she isn't at work, you can find her spending time with her family and friends. She also serves in her local church assisting in the media and youth departments.
